(b) Details furnished by the State Government regarding damage caused by wild elephants to human-life and property in Karnataka during the last three years and the compensation paid therefor are given in the Statement enclosed. (See below)

(c) No, Sir. Government of India had advised all the State Governments in December 1999 for increasing the amount of ex-gratia payment in case of death caused by wild animals from Rs. 20,000 to Rs. 1,00,000. The Government of Karnataka has accepted the advice vide its orders dated 12.02.2002. The rate for ex-gratia for permanent disability caused by elephants has also been enhanced to Rs. 25,000. The corresponding rates for crop damage have also been revised. Furthermore, the State Government, through its circular dated 11.6.2002,has adopted a uniform procedure for assessing the crop damage by field officers. The power of sanctioning ex-gratia relief in respect of human deaths has been delegated to the Divisional Forest Officers. The power of sanctioning ex-gratia relief for crop-damage has been delegated to Divisional Forest Officer (up to Rs. 6,000/- in each
